

My Influential Family Member

Who is my influential family member?

My grandmother is my influential relative. Her name is Joan Hart and she is now 72 years old. She worked as a community health representative at Miles Square.

What did she do?

At my grandmother's job before she was retired she had a lot of people who would mess with her and try to sabotage her. While this was happening my grandmother didn't react in a rude way. But she was persistent and kept going until she got the respect she deserved.

Where did this person live and were there any protagonist that helped them do great things?

She is still alive today. There were not really any protagonist but really antagonist that made her do her incredible thing.

Why did this person do what they did?

My grandmother did this because she was tired of being treated like crap and she knew that in order to put a stop to this torment that she had to take action.

How Did their accolades occur over time, did it happen quickly. How did they leave their mark on you?

She didn't really get an accolade from anyone but her family and herself. The people at her job thought that she was crazy for standing up to these people. But at home the accolade did happen to spread quickly. We were all so excited for her. When i heard about this as a little kid I knew one of my main goals was to be as determined and persistent as I could and I wouldn't let people bully me. This is how my grandmother left her mark on me.
